PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING
GRANTING ANM MOTION FOR LATE INTERVENTION

(December 13, 1999)

In a motion filed October 27, 1999, the Alliance of Nonprofit Mailers (ANM) sought leave to intervene out of time. In support of its request, ANM indicated that it had only recently been instructed by its membership to participate in the proceeding. It also stated that it believed its intervention should not prejudice any other participant, and agreed to be bound by any procedures established in this proceeding.

Given ANM's representation regarding the timing of its instructions to participate, the lack of apparent prejudice to others, and its agreement to be bound by procedures, its motion for late intervention is granted.

RULING

1. The October 27, 1999 Motion of ANM for Leave to Intervene Out of Time is granted.
